TOYOBO MC Corporation to exhibit at “LOUPE Americas 2026” ~One of North America’s Largest Label and Packaging Printing Exhibition~

TOYOBO MC Corporation (hereinafter “TOYOBO MC”) will exhibit at “LOUPE Americas 2026”^{*1}, to be held in Rosemont, near Chicago, USA, from September 15 to 17, 2026, together with its North American distributor, Anderson & Vreeland Inc. The exhibition is one of North America’s largest events for label and packaging printing, bringing together the latest technologies related to labels, flexible packaging, folding cartons, and other packaging applications.

At its booth, TOYOBO MC will showcase for the first time a new grade of Water-washable flexo plate, “Cosmolight[®]” (hereinafter “New Cosmolight”) . Compared with conventional “Cosmolight[®]” plates, New Cosmolight delivers brighter, higher-quality prints through enhanced reproduction of fine dots. The precise reproduction of surface patterns also improves ink transfer, making water-based ink a more reliable option for flexible packaging printing. Visitors will have the opportunity to examine the latest print samples and plates firsthand and see how New Cosmolight enhances print quality and ink transfer performance.

We invite you to visit our booth and experience our latest technologies.
